SCHOOL of INTERNATIONAL SERVICE
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

Aloha!

American University's School of International Service congratulates the faculty, students, and staff participating in a range of International Studies Association's panels, events, and roundtables. From section meetings to association business, you'll find our changing-making scholars and students at the helm of projects that tackle everything from local housing issues to world peace.

From the recently launched EU Transatlantic Policy Center, one of just five Jean Monnet Centers of Excellence in the US, to the Institute for Carbon Removal Law & Policy, which educates on some of the most cutting-edge topics in climate change discussions, SIS's centers, programs, and initiatives offer opportunities for research collaboration.

We hope you will join SIS to celebrate our colleagues' wonderful research at our SIS ISA 2020 Reception to be held on Thursday, March 26 at 7:30 PM in Prince Waikiki Hotel, Pi'inaio 1. Mingle with our faculty, catch up with colleagues, or plan next year's panel!

Also, don't miss Bridging the Gap's (BTG) panels, which include alumni from their programs in addition to our SIS associated faculty. During the conference you can connect with BTG in the Oxford University Press booth (#401) as they highlight the Oxford University Press Bridging the Gap Series. Join them at the BTG-ISSS-REL-WOTR reception on Friday, March 27 from 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, Great Lawn.

We hope this directory will help you connect with our community and invite you to follow-up with them and further collaboration in the SIS research enterprise. Post-event we invite you to visit our dedicated ISA 2020 archives page, where you'll be able to access papers, presentations, and links to all the terrific work going on at SIS.

Check out our social media platforms (Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn), website, and don't forget to join our mailing list. In addition to information on events like book launches, learn about new faculty publications, and connect with SIS's centers, initiatives, faculty research clusters, and individual members of our research community.

See you in 2021!

American University's School of International Service (SIS) is a top-10 school of international affairs located in Washington, D.C. Since our founding in 1957, we have answered President Dwight D. Eisenhower's call to prepare students of international affairs to "wage peace." We do so because we believe the world needs leaders who are ready to serve.

SIS is guided by 120 full-time faculty. Our world-renowned faculty — leading political scientists, economists, sociologists, anthropologists, demographers, geographers, historians, and experts in international development, global health, communications, energy, and the environment — produce transformational research and prepare more than 3,000 graduate and undergraduate students for global careers in government, nonprofits, and business.

Thoughtful and aspirational, with wide-ranging backgrounds and experience, our students take advantage of Washington's wealth of resources and professional opportunities, and our active international network of more than 20,000 alumni. Our graduates are prepared to combine knowledge and practice and to serve the global community as emerging leaders, waging peace and building understanding in our world.
