Performing for the Future: Local Children's Dance Competition to Raise Funds for the Capital Area Food Bank and Up and Coming Not-For Profit

Mariam Breant, a professor at American University and founder of new not-for-profit, Centre International pour L'enfant et La Mere or The International Center for Children and Mothers is partnering with the Capital Area Food Bank to present a fundraising event, Performing for the Future. Breant created C.I.E.M. to raise awareness and increase aid to the CHR Hospital of Seguela, which is in extremely poor condition and has a very large number of child patients. Breant, a highly recognized singer on the Ivory Coast, has always had a passion for music and children. She has partnered with the Capital Area Food Bank, another local organization that has a strong interest in keeping all children healthy.

The event will be hosted by Breant and will consist of musical performances by local children's groups as well as other young singers and performers in the area. Among the child performers are name, name, and name. The event will also consist of a live performance by Breant off of album name. All proceeds from ticket sales and donations will directly benefit C.I.E.M. and the Capital Area Food Bank. All are invited to attend
