

Redefining PERCEPTIONS of Africa through

art

Monday, November 30, 2009
7 PM — Kay Spiritual Life Center
AIDS Awareness Week 2009

An evening of music, poetry, and discussion celebrating African creativity.
Reception following with vegetarian Ethiopian food provided by Zed's Ethiopian Cuisine in Georgetown.

This event is free and open to the public.

Performers/Panelists including Galileo, Bassey Ikpi, Femi the Dri Fish, and Mahala.

For more information contact Ravenna at ravennaelizabeth@gmail.com.

SPONSORED BY: Alpha Phi Omega, Africa Council, African Students Council, AU Baptists, AU Burma, AU Club Council, AU Episcopalians, AU Model UN, AU NAACP, Community Action and Social Justice Coalition, Community Service Center, EcoSense, Honors Program, International Communication Student Forum, Office of the Dean of Students, Office of Multicultural Affairs, On a Sensual Note, Phi Mu, Project Nur, Queers and Allies, Residence Hall Association, Student Advocates for Native Communities, Students for African Studies, Student Peace Action, Students for Sensible Drug Policy, US Foreign Policy Association, WASSA, Washington Peace Center, Women's Initiative, Yoga and Movement, and Zed's Ethiopian Cuisine.

Women's Initiative

Graduate Leadership Council

Zed's